Hong Kong Association of Heads of Secondary Schools

(2002/2003)
Newsletter No. 1

Dear colleagues,

In the first newsletter of the year, may I extend our warmest regards from the Executive Committee members and wish you all a fruitful and prosperous year ahead.

Admiring all the changing demands in education, we still abide by our commitment to professional development of members. We would continue our efforts in making the Association a platform for the sharing and growth of members. We sincerely invite you all to join hands together to progress from strength to strength. I am very pleased to keep you informed of some latest news.
