Happy Hour Forum

Understanding the new media, our new challenging friend

6th September 2016

Dear Fellow Members,

Internet, emails, blogs, online chatrooms, twitter, Facebook, podcast, video games, virtual worlds, Wikipedia..... Don't you realise that new media have shaped modern culture, by affecting the way people behave, communicate, learn and conceive of themselves and their world? Do we understand new media which are so common among our young people well enough? Are new media our challenges? Or, are they our friends?

Besides wishing you all the best in the new school year, I sincerely invite you to join our Happy Hour Forum in which we are probing the above questions. We are happy to have Mr. Chan Kok Ming(陳珺明), an experienced media worker who currently working for the Next Media, agreed to share his views and experience with us. You shouldn't miss it!
