Dear Colleagues,

30 August 2021

On behalf of the Hong Kong Association of the Heads of Secondary Schools (HKAHSS), I write to convey our heartfelt congratulations to you on your new posting. It is an honour and privilege to be a principal and a role in which we can all take pride. Welcome on board for your adventure onto new frontiers. Please be assured that you are not alone when charting across the vast ocean, we are ready to keep you company.

The HKAHSS, established in 1964, has a proud history in enhancing professional growth of principals, sharing insights and experiences on education, and promoting various educational initiatives in Hong Kong. Over the years, the Association has been faithfully performing its role through various professional endeavors such as conferences, seminars, surveys, researches, publications, study groups, and duty visits etc. You can browse for more of our work on our website www.hkahss.edu.hk.

It is indeed disheartening to admit that Hong Kong is currently experiencing a momentous period that affects all facets of our society. The coronavirus pandemic these two years will surely change Hong Kong as a whole and education in particular. Tough times ahead are to be expected, but HKAHSS will work with its members together to meet the challenges so as to safeguard the wellbeing of our students and our society in the coming years.

You are sincerely invited to join us and the membership form can be downloaded at our website. Please do not hesitate to contact us at 55059911 or via email at info@hkahss.edu.hk, or our other Executive Committee members for any assistance you may need. Looking forward to seeing you in our forthcoming events.

Mr Lin Chun Pong,
Chairman
